

AROUND THE TABLE:
Little Questions, Big Conversations

Print and cut out these conversation cards, then place them in a jar or stack them on the table. During mealtime, take turns picking a card and answering the question to spark fun conversations and meaningful family connections!

What made you smile today?

What is one thing
you learned today?

What made you laugh today?

What is something you wish you could do again today?

What is something you are proud of?

What makes you feel happy?

What helps you feel better when you are sad?

When do you feel brave?

How can we help someone who is having a hard day?

What is something you love
doing together as a family?

What makes our family special?

What is your favorite family memory?

How do you like to be shown that someone loves you?

What is something you like about the person sitting next to you?

What is something fun we should do together soon?

What makes our home feel special?

What is something you are proud of?

What makes you feel happy?

What is one way we can help each other this week?

What makes someone a good friend?

How can you help someone feel included?

What is something kind someone did for you?

How can we show kindness at home?

What is one kind thing we could do tomorrow?

What is something you are thankful for today?

What is something you would like to learn?

If you could eat one food every day, what would it be?

What food would you like to cook with our family?

If you could have any superpower, what would it be?

What would your dream playground look like?

What would you do if you could fly for one day?

If you could go anywhere in the world, where would you go?

If you invented an ice cream flavor, what would be in it?

If today had a color, what color would it be?

If your stuffed animals could talk, what would they say?

If you could make it rain anything, what would you choose?

What would you do if your toys came to life?

If you were a grown-up for a day, what would you do?

What would you name a friendly monster?

What is the silliest sound you can make?

If you had a robot helper, what would you ask it to do?

What would your dream playground look like?

What would you do if you could fly for one day?

Would you rather have a pet unicorn or a pet dragon?

If you opened a restaurant, what would you serve?

What would you do if you could talk to animals?

What would you do if you could shrink to the size of an ant?

If you could choose another name for yourself, what would it be?
